IITD, Centre for Atmospheric Sciences 2025

PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES

The programme aims to foster strong, internationally oriented higher education systems in South Asia with the capacity to contribute to sustainable development. For this purpose, scholarships for development-related Doctoral studies are awarded to individuals who plan to pursue a career in teaching and/or research at a higher education institution in South Asia

By training future academic and professional leaders, the programme contributes to the following long-term impacts:

- Qualified professionals' involvement in the solution of development-related problems in South Asia
- Graduates strengthening education and research in South Asia
- Structural strengthening and regional networking of partner institutions and partner universities

To achieve these long-term impacts, the following outcomes have been formulated as programme objectives:

Programme objective 1: Graduates have qualified to take over responsible positions in their or for their region of origin

Programme objective 2: The participation of women and underprivileged groups is reinforced

Programme objective 3: Organizational, financial and personal capacities of partner institutions are strengthened

As part of the „In-Country/In-Region Scholarship Programme“, DAAD offers scholarships for PhD studies. The programme is supported by the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) and designed primarily for university staff in the first line, whilst also catering to the public sector demand of academically trained personnel.

The target group for scholarships is graduates from Bhutan, Bangladesh, Nepal or Sri Lanka with a Master degree if applying for a doctoral programme, who want to pursue PhD courses, in India.

(In-Region scholarships) designed for students who want to participate in a study programme in a country of their home region (here: in India /outside their home country/in the country for which they do not have a residence permit).

It has been agreed upon that DAAD cooperates with the IIT Delhi by offering up to 2 scholarships for PhD studies at the IITD for the intake 2025. The awarding of scholarships will be subject to the provision of funds.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS FOR A PHD DEGREE

Applicants for a PhD degree

Female applicants, refugees with recognized refugee status and candidates from other less privileged regions or groups are especially encouraged to participate in the programme.

Scholarships for PhD studies are initially granted for one year and can be extended to a maximum of the regular period of study upon receipt of an application for extension. Scholars must demonstrate satisfactory progress before an extension is granted.

Please note: IIT Delhi might have additional requirements for admission to the university.

ELIGIBLE FIELDS FOR A PHD DEGREE

The In-Country/In-Region Scholarship Programme supports studies in subject areas with strong relevance to national development.

Scholarships at IIT Delhi are available for the following programme:

- PhD in Atmospheric and Oceanic Science and Technology

PLACE OF TENURE FOR A PHD DEGREE

IIT Delhi, Center of Atmospheric Sciences, New Delhi 110016 INDIA

DURATION AND COMMENCEMENT FOR A PHD DEGREE

The duration

- of the PhD programme is generally up to 5 years and is usually starting in August 2025.

Please note that the maximum duration of the scholarship consists of the year you apply for, plus the time left to the end of the regular period of studies in that programme. For example, if you apply for a DAAD scholarship starting in your second year of studies of a three-year programme, the maximum duration of the scholarship will be two years.

The standard period of study and the start date are based on the Affiliate Agreement between the programme partner and the DAAD.

Please note: if you arrive later, the duration of your scholarship will be shortened accordingly.

SCHOLARSHIP BENEFITS

The scholarship covers:

Benefits	Payment Schedule	Amount
Tuition Fees*	Usually twice in a year after receipt of invoice	The DAAD pays the agreed amount directly to the host university*
Study and research allowance	annually	920 EUR
Printing allowance	once towards the end of scholarship	800 EUR
Monthly Scholarship (Accommodation, Food etc.)	monthly	600 Euro
Travel allowance (In-Region only)	usually twice (beginning/ end of scholarship)	The flat rate travel allowance will be specified in the letter of award.
Health Insurance (In-Region only)		Health insurance is part of the tuition fees

*Please note that in some cases not all fees and costs that are mentioned on the official fee structure of the host institution can be covered by DAAD in full, e.g. if the agreement with the funding organization prevents DAAD from funding certain items in the fee structure or if items that are included in the fees are supposed to be covered through the individual scholarship benefits. DAAD will transfer the fees directly to the host institution. The following parts of the fees are excluded: Gymkhana, Transport charges, Hostel seat rent, Institution security deposit, Library security deposit.

PAYMENT OF SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

The DAAD will endeavour to transfer/pay out the first monthly payment in India as quickly as possible after your arrival/ after the beginning of your scholarship. Processing the first transfer of funds may take some time, especially if you are able to set up your bank account only after your arrival in your destination country. To be able to cover the costs which arise until you receive your first scholarship payment, we recommend that you bring a financial reserve with you.

Payments cannot be made in advance/prior of the scholarship start date and the commencement of studies at the host institution. Furthermore, no additional benefits than those listed in this call for applications, can be made.

Please note that the travel allowance for In-Region scholarship holders will only be transferred along with the first scholarship rate, i.e. after the arrival in the host country.

The scholarship will be paid directly to the scholarship holder's bank account. Further details will be communicated after admission to the scholarship programme in the Letter of Award.

If there is good cause, the DAAD will terminate the scholarship by cancelling the scholarship agreement. In this case, the scholarship payments shall be discontinued immediately. Good cause exists, in particular, if you have violated the rules of good scientific practice.

ADDITIONAL BENEFITS

DAAD In-Country/In-Region scholarship holders in the framework of PhD programmes are also

a) encouraged to apply for a short-term research stay in Germany for 2 up to 6 months.

Please note:

- The short-term research stay in Germany should preferably be announced in the application for the regular scholarship and can only be awarded if the necessary financial means are available.
- If you would like to apply, please note that the funding period for a short-term research stay in Germany is part of the In-Country/In-Region programme and the regular study period of the programme may not be exceeded by the short-term research stay in Germany, this must be included in the regular study period of the In-Country/In-Region programme.

Further information will be provided upon request via the DAAD Portal after you have received your In-Country/In-Region scholarship.

The short-term research scholarship includes:

- a monthly scholarship payment for living costs
- health/accident/personal liability insurance
- a flat-rate travel allowance

DAAD In-Country/In-Region scholarship holders are also

- b) invited to apply for different Summer Schools in Germany (four weeks)

Further details regarding additional benefits and the corresponding application processes will be provided after admission to the scholarship programme.

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCEDURE FOR A PHD DEGREE

As a first step, all applicants must submit a complete application for the programme via the DAAD Portal. This is a standard uploading area for all programme applications and some documents may not be mandatory for your application. Please refer to your programme call to check which documents are required.

Please be aware of the DAAD's application deadline as well as IIT Delhi deadline.

The application process for DAAD scholarships contains the following steps:

1. Register on the portal: <https://www.meindaad.de/en/help/how-do-i-register-for-an-application/>
2. Log in to the portal
3. Carefully read the instructions on how to apply in the portal: <https://www.meindaad.de/en/help/how-can-i-submit-my-application/>
4. Submit your application via the portal by the deadline indicated on the cover page of this document (20.11.2024). Use the following link to access the funding programme via the portal directly: <https://funding.meindaad.de/sites/personalfunding#PBFApplication-Start?fundingProgramInstance=57757609>

Application is only possible during the application period from 16.09.2024 to 20.11.2024.

Remember to check that your application is complete and meets DAAD requirements before submitting! Otherwise, your application cannot be considered.

DAAD will conduct a formal review of the applications received via the DAAD portal only, according to the DAAD criteria.

► In addition to this first step, applicants must at the same time/as a second step apply for admission at the IIT Delhi using the contact details and procedure prescribed by the institution. The institution sets its own deadline for the admission process. Please inform yourself in plenty of time about the application process at the host institution.

In a final selection organized by the DAAD, applications that have met both the admission requirements at the host university (and the university's rank in the pre-selection) and the DAAD's formal criteria are evaluated by an independent selection committee. The independent selection committee evaluates the applications based on the submitted documents, taking into consideration the pre-selection ranking of the institution. Areas evaluated include academic performance and quality, extracurricular activities, motivation, and relevance of the research topic (if applicable).

The selection process usually takes place in April. The final decision will be announced for the region of South- and Southeast Asia approximately one month after the selection process has been accomplished.

Please note, that the information about the selection process and the deadlines for an announcement of the final decisions are a subject to change.

The DAAD reserves the right of final selection.

Please note that all short-listed applicants may be asked to participate in a multi-wave monitoring survey to gather data on different academic and career development aspects. Participation is voluntary.

APPLICATION DOCUMENTS TO BE UPLOADED TO THE DAAD PORTAL

Mandatory documents for the DAAD scholarship application to be submitted and uploaded to the DAAD portal (in either English or German):

- DAAD online application form duly filled in and submitted according to the outlined deadline.
- A full curriculum vitae in tabular form if not otherwise possible without a signature

- A list of publications (if applicable)
- English language certificate (TOEFL- paper based 580 overall and 4.0 in the Test of Written English; computer based 240 overall and 4.0 in essay writing; internet based 95 overall and 20 in writing or IELTS- 6 or more in each section and an overall score of 6.5)
- Two recommendation letters signed by university teachers which provide information about your qualifications. One of the recommendation letters for PhD could be issued by an employer. You can generate the recommendation form in the DAAD Portal as a writable PDF under 'Request reference form'. Please send it to your university teacher and ask them to complete the form in full. When you have received it back, please upload it in the portal under 'Letter of Recommendation'. Please note: The form for completion by a university teacher can only be generated during the application period. This form of a Letter of Recommendation is mandatory and will be the only one which will be accepted by the DAAD.
- Letter of admission for the host institution (this can be subsequently submitted before the scholarship begins if it is not available at the time of application).
- Certified copies of university degree certificates including transcripts (if available, including a grading scale for the final university degree and if available, information on the recognition of the university degree certificates in the host country) to be uploaded under “university degree certificated” in the DAAD portal
- Letter of motivation (1-3 pages with your personal, social motivation as well as your reference to the studies and a PhD project). Please upload the letter of motivation under “study project/motivation” in the DAAD portal

- Detailed and precise PhD proposal (8-10 pages)
- Detailed work and timetable with detailed information outlined with months and dates as well as information on when the last exam will take place (if applicable: mentioning the planned research stay in Germany, see “Additional benefits”)
- Please note that a detailed and comprehensive proposal is necessary for the assessment. Concept notes will not be accepted.
- Abstract of the proposal on one page (please include name and title of the proposal)

- Declaration of acceptance, must be provided at the beginning of the scholarship, from the academic supervisor or a commitment letter from the host institution that a supervisor will be assigned
- If applicable, information on the UNHCR registration as refugee

Optional:

- Additional documents that might be relevant for your application (e.g. proof of internships, proof of employment).

Your application is only valid if you submit all the required documents to the DAAD portal on time. Incomplete applications cannot be considered. You are responsible for ensuring that your applications are complete. If you do not have documents such as letter of admission at the time of application, please mention and explain this at an appropriate place in the application.

Please note that the scholarship only becomes effective when → the Admission Letter (this can be subsequently submitted before the scholarship begins if it is not available before) from the university is issued

AND

→ a proof (boarding card and if possible a letter from supervisor or coordinator) has been submitted that you are on site at the host university to begin your studies. This must be submitted to the DAAD portal as soon as possible and is part of a complete application (this has to be submitted before the scholarship begins).
