

Thematic Network:

REMAPPING THE GLOBAL SOUTH:

Teaching – Researching – Exchanging

Goal

The Network intends to strengthen the ties with the GSSC's international partners and to cement the link between research on transitions in the Global South and teaching within an international network.

The network partners warrant excellent cooperation perspectives and have been chosen for three reasons

- (1) longstanding cooperation in research and teaching,
- (2) proven excellence and
- (3) renowned expertise in interdisciplinary research on the topics of our Thematic Research Areas (TRAs).

Measures

- Field Schools
- Workshops and conferences
- Training workshops in „Academic publishing and writing“
- Study and Research visits for graduate and junior researchers
- Short and long term visits of university personnel
- Joint academic publications
- Development of bi- or multilateral teaching agendas

Workshops and Summer Schools 2016

- Summer School Berlin: Urban Development and Green Space Planning - The example of Tempelhofer Feld
- Summer School: Natural and Cultural Heritage in Delhi
- Summer School in Guangzhou
- Workshop Buenos Aires: “Movimientos Sociales en América Latina”

Partner Universities

India
Jawaharlal Nehru University,
New Delhi

China
Sun Yat-Sen University,
Guangzhou

Argentina
Universidad Nacional
de San Martín,
Buenos Aires

South Africa
University of the Western Cape,
Cape Town

Student and Staff-mobility

2015

2016

Projektverantwortlich:

Prof. Dr. Barbara Potthast, Global South Studies Center (GSSC), University of Cologne

Projektkoordination:

Ulrike Wesch, M.A., Global South Studies Center (GSSC), University of Cologne, Universitätsstraße 22, 50937 Köln, Germany,
Tel: +49 221 470 2272, Fax: +49 221 470 8350, Email: ulrike.wesch@uni-koeln.de

Projekt ID: 57172476