

RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT 2022

WITHIN THE:

“Network of Excellence on Land Governance in Africa”

Programme Objectives

The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) is funded by the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) as commissioned by the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) to organize support measures for the “Network of Excellence for Land Governance in Africa (NELGA)”.

NELGA is a partnership of over 50 leading African universities and research institutions with proven leadership in education, training and research on land governance.

The objectives of NELGA are:

- Enhancing training opportunities and curricula on land governance in Africa;
- Promoting demand driven research on land policy;
- Connecting scholars and researchers across Africa;
- Creating data and information for monitoring and evaluation on land policy reforms;
- Strengthening policy-research linkages.

DAAD is offering research fellowships for research stays or field studies.

Eligible Applicants

We invite staff members or students of NELGA partner institutions with a background in land governance or a related field to apply for funding for NELGA research fellowships.

Applicants must

- have completed at least a first university degree (undergraduate) at a state or state-recognized institution of higher education;
- be enrolled or a staff member at one of the NELGA partner universities or associated institutions;
- return to their studies/duty station at the end of the fellowship;
- be nationals of an African country;
- be granted leave of absence by their home institution for conducting a field study.

Female applicants and candidates from less privileged regions or groups are especially encouraged to apply.

Eligible Field

Applicants must have a background in land governance/ land management or a related field (e.g. land administration, land economics, urban and regional planning, geomatics).

Proposals covering the following cross-cutting issues will be given special consideration:

- Women’s land rights
- Land and Transparency
- Urban-rural linkages

Place of Tenure

The fellowships are tenable in the field, at a state or state-recognized institution of higher education or a non-university research institute in any African country. The fellowship does not provide financial support to research at the applicant’s home institution.

Duration

The fellowships are tenable for a period of one up to three months, depending on the project in questions and the applicant’s timetable. Only full months are fundable. The fellowship is not renewable.

Value

The fellowship consists of:

- a flat-rate travel allowance: EUR 280 for in-country, EUR 430 for neighbouring countries, EUR 630 for in-region, EUR 980 for out of region;
- a monthly research allowance of EUR 460.

Terms & Conditions

The fellowship does not cover living expenses. One month after the end of the fellowship the fellow must provide a detailed report on the implementation of the research and its findings. The fellowship is not renewable.
