Vision of FORTHEM

FORTHEM aims to set up a student-centred and inclusive European University which is anchored in its various regions, focusing on research, education, innovation and transfer. Building on this, FORTHEM works diligently to implement the “knowledge square” in the regions it comprises, to enhance innovative pedagogies at all nine universities, and to ensure multidisciplinary, interculturality and multilingualism in education, research and innovation. Co-creation with students, staff and the public and private sectors is at the core of FORTHEM. Working FOR THEM means to work for every student and every staff member, across all nine regions.

ACCOMPANYING NATIONAL PROGRAMME

Priorities and Project Activities

- Creating spaces for experimentation and creativity: Encouraging joint projects in the fields of digitalisation, co-creation, and innovative education for more intensive networking among researchers in order to make a positive impact beyond university borders through close integration with the region and its stakeholders.
- Supporting strategic development: Promoting activities for connecting working experts within and beyond the university through shared spaces for dialogue and participation workshops to intensify exchange at the university, national and European level and to strengthen the role of FORTHEM as a European University Alliance.
- Establishing conditions for the success of international networks: Implementing measures to boost indispensable skills for international cooperation, such as workshops in intercultural communication or international project management, as well as regular reflection meetings with partner universities.
