Vision of EULiST

Educating multilingual, socially responsible European citizens, bridging the gap between science and society and bringing them closer together;

Building an analogue and virtual European inter-university EULiST campus with a strong culture of diversity, inclusion and sustainability;

Developing innovative, flexible and interactive teaching formats and curricula integrating cutting-edge research closely and sustainably;

Establishing international teams consisting of students, researchers and regional partners in order to develop sustainable solutions to current social challenges in transnational, interdisciplinary constellations across sectors;

Building a knowledge and transfer network for collaboration between the involved regions as science locations in order to promote knowledge-oriented research and innovation as well as evidence-based politics.
