German-Ukrainian University Network

2025-2029

Study and Teaching

Evangelische Hochschule Berlin

Social Work

Project

TRACE – Trauma-Responsive Approach for Counseling and Empowerment

Partnering Ukrainian University

Lviv Polytechnic National University

Special Interests and Networking

Trauma-sensitive counseling

Diversity-oriented social work

Refugee support

International teaching formats

Prof. Dr. Alla Koval
alla.koval@eh-berlin

Martin Leutner
martin.leutner@eh-berlin.de

Project Website

Project Outcomes

1. Development of English-language modules on trauma-sensitive, diversity-oriented counseling and biography work
2. Publication of a methods handbook
3. Implementation of a blended-learning format and development of podcasts
4. Establishment of an alumni network with Train-the-Trainer programs
5. Organization of international conferences and study visits
6. Evaluation of the development process

Central Activities

- Joint development and teaching of modules in Berlin and Lviv
- Study visits and guest lectures
- Creation of teaching materials and blended-learning platform
- International Summer School
- Language courses and formative evaluation

www.daad.de/duhn

With funding from the:
Federal Ministry of Research, Technology and Space

DAAD Deutscher Akademischer Austauschdienst German Academic Exchange Service